Due to the now very strict controls at check-in or upon entry into the travel destination, the names must match the information in the passport. If the name differs from the name on the passport, this can lead to significant fees for reservation changes - at the expense of the traveller - or possibly to refused entry to the country of destination. DER accepts no liability for this.

A credit card payment is only possible with payment of the resulting disagio. The amount of the disagio depends on the credit card company and is typically 1-2% of the price of the trip.

The deposit of 25% of the trip price (per person) plus the cost of the desired insurance is payable on booking the trip. The balance will be paid before 08 March 2017 following receipt of invoice.
