Evangelist Reinhard Bonnke

Evangelist Reinhard Bonnke is principally known for his Great Gospel Campaigns throughout the Continent of Africa. The son of a pastor, Reinhard gave his life to the Lord at age nine, and heard the call to the African mission field before he was even a teenager. After attending Bible College in Wales, he pastored a church and then went on to start missionary work in Africa.

It was there, in the small mountain kingdom of Lesotho, that God placed upon his heart the vision of 'the entire continent of Africa, being transformed by the precious blood of Jesus'. Evangelist Bonnke began holding meetings in a tent that accommodated just 800 people, but, as attendance steadily increased, larger and larger tents had to be purchased, until finally, in 1984, he commissioned the construction of the world's largest mobile structure - a tent capable of seating 34,000 people!

Soon, attendance at his meetings even exceeded the capacity of this huge structure, and he began open-air Gospel Campaigns with an initial gathering of over 150,000 people per service! Since then, he has conducted city-wide meetings across the continent with as many as 1,600,000 people attending a single meeting using towering sound systems that can be heard for miles.

It has now been more than 40 years since Reinhard Bonnke founded the international ministry of Christ for all Nations (CfaN), which currently has offices in the United States, Canada, Germany, United Kingdom, Nigeria, South Africa, Singapore, Brazil and Australia. Since the start of the new millennium, through a host of major events in Africa and other parts of the world, the ministry has recorded more than 66 million documented decisions for Jesus Christ.

As part of the discipleship-training program, more than 185 million copies of CfaN follow-up literature have been published in 103 languages. Millions of books have been printed and freely 'seeded' in nations around the world.

Reinhard Bonnke is also recognized for hosting 'Fire Conferences' in many different countries of the world, events that are aimed at equipping church leaders and workers for evangelism; for distributing over 95,500,000 copies of Minus to Plus, a profound salvation message, to homes around the world; and for seeking every opportunity to reach and to save the lost.

More recently, Bonnke has spent several years developing the 'Full Flame Film Series,' a series of eight inspirational films aimed at inspiring and challenging the church to Holy Spirit evangelism.

He is known as one with a burning passion for the Gospel, a vision for Africa and a message for the world.

Evangelist Bonnke is married to Anni, father to Kai-Uwe, Gabriele, and Susi, and grandfather to eight grandchildren.
